DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Examiner acknowledges response by applicant's representative received 7/25/08. Examiner further apologizes for the omission of claim 11, in err.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1, 3-10 & 12-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The limitation "ball rolling detection selection means" and "ball rolling direction selection portion" appear to be new matter. Applicant is required to identify support for these limitations or amend the claims to omit such.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1 & 3-22 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-7 of copending Application No. 10/528,101. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they are both disclose similar subject matter.

Claims 1 & 3-22 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-5 of copending Application No. 10/528,102. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they are both disclose similar subject matter.

These are provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejections because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3, 7-8, 11 & 16-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yamaguchi et al. (463).

Yamaguchi et al discloses a Number Drawing Apparatus And Game Machine Therewith.

Regarding claims 1, 3, 7-8, 11 & 16-22, Yamaguchi teaches a cabinet having a face portion on which a lottery ball can roll and a plurality of holes ( see figs. 1 & 7-9), a results determination means (col. 5, lines 54-57), a ball entrance detecting means (Fig. 5 & lines 30—36) and a ball discharging means (fig. 3 & col. 5, lines 1-13). As for claims 4-6 & 10, Yamaguchi teaches a cabinet having a face portion on which a lottery ball can roll and a plurality of holes ( see figs. 1 & 7-9), a results determination means (col. 5, lines 54-57), a ball entrance detecting means (Fig. 5 & lines 30 - 36) and a ball discharging means (fig. 3 & col. 5, lines 1-13).

Yamaguchi further teaches a gate control means/shutter (Fig. 5, (82) and assigned symbols along with a symbol detecting unit (abstract & fig. 5 (84)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yamaguchi et al.

In the case of claims 12-15, Yamaguchi fails to teach two slopes, he teaches one. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to duplicate the slopes, since it has been held that mere duplication of the essential working parts of a device involves only routine skill in the art. St. Regis Paper C. v. Bemis Co., 193 USPQ 8.

Response to Arguments

Applicant argues that the reference of art fails to teach a lottery ball rolling direction detection portion/ means. Examiner disagrees with this argument since the cited reference to Yamaguchi et al. teaches a rotating unit which is inherently a directional means rejection. Applicant also argues that the double patenting rejection is improper based on the missing aforementioned limitation.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure and are cited to show the state of art with respect to features of the claimed invention.
